

GUILD SCHOLARSHIPS

If you're a California Media Workers Guild member, and your dependent child is starting college in the fall, he or she may qualify for $500 in aid from your union

New Benefit for Media Workers

The San Jose Guild pioneered a great local scholarship program for college-bound children of members at the Mercury News and Monterey Herald.

We've decided to carry on that tradition. Now, any member in good standing, from any unit of the California Media Workers Guild Local 39521, can apply for $500 to spend on books, tuition -- whatever!

Our Scholarship Committee will notify the winners by Aug. 1.

To apply: Download the application at mediaworkers.org and follow the instructions. You will need your high school transcript!

Deadline: July 15, 2009

Eligibility: Dependent son or daughter of members in good standing, California Media Workers Guild, TNG-CWA Local 39521. Not sure if you qualify as a member? Call 415-421-6833. Applicants must be accepted as an entering freshman for the 2009-2010 school year at an accredited college or university.

Selection: Based on academic achievement, service to the community, work record and financial need.

ALL APPLICATIONS WILL BE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL
