CLC

November 1, 2010 – October 31, 2013

This Agreement is made effective the 1st day of November, 2010, between the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, (hereinafter referred to as "Employer"), a non-profit organization, and the Pacific Media Workers Guild Local 39521 ("Union") chartered by The Newspaper Guild/CWA, AFL-CIO, CLC, for itself and on behalf of all the employees described in Article I.

ARTICLE I - COVERAGE

1. This agreement covers all employees of the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, except as provided in Section 2.

2. The following are excluded from this Agreement: The Executive Secretary-Treasurer, the President, the Executive Assistant to the Executive Secretary-Treasurer, the Political Director, the Communications Director, the Legislative Director, the Campaign Director, the Chief of Staff, the Finance Director, the Executive Assistant, the Executive director of WED (other than the Executive Director position, employees of the Workforce and Economic Development shall be included in the bargaining unit established under this Agreement or that of Local 3 OPEIU as appropriate) and all employees in job classifications currently covered by the collective bargaining Agreement between the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, and Local 3, OPEIU.

3. For Federation projects of up to twelve months and for leaves of absence, it is the Employer's intention to hire into the bargaining unit. These employees will be twelve-month "campaign workers" or leave of absence replacements with union security in accordance with Article II. In addition, these employees will enjoy benefits including health and welfare, pension, vacation, holiday and sick leave, as well as transportation and expenses. Such employees will not have seniority, transfer or layoff rights, nor be subject to the just cause discharge rights. The twelve-month limitation for an employee may be extended for a particular employee by mutual Agreement with the Union. Unless an extension is mutually agreed upon, any employee working beyond twelve months shall be a permanent employee with seniority from the date of first hire.

ARTICLE II - UNION SECURITY

1. It shall be a condition of employment that all employees covered by this Agreement who are members of the Union in good standing on the effective date of this Agreement shall remain members in good standing and those who are not members on the effective date of this Agreement shall become and remain members in good standing in the Union. The foregoing provisions shall be effective in accordance and consistent with applicable provisions of federal and state laws. It shall also be a condition of employment that all employees covered by this Agreement and hired on or after its effective date shall, on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment, become and remain members in good standing in the Union.

2. The Union agrees that it will admit to and retain in membership any such employee subject to the provisions of the Constitution of The Newspaper Guild/CWA and the by-laws of the Pacific Media Workers Guild.

3. The Employer shall, in compliance with all applicable law, deduct from the paycheck of each employee each week, and shall pay to the Union not later than the tenth (10th) day of the following month, all dues and assessments levied by the Union for the current month.

4. In all matters concerning employment there shall be no discrimination against employees because of age, sex, race, creed, color, sexual orientation, national origin or union activity.

5. The Employer agrees to supply the Union on January 1 of each year with a salary list of all employees covered by the Union bargaining unit, showing name, address, sex, minority group, date of birth, date of hiring, job title, pay grade and pay step. The Employer further agrees to supply the Union once each month a list of the employees in the unit who are added to and deleted from the payroll and any changes in the job classification or salaries.

6. There shall be no interference or attempt to interfere with the operation of the Union in the performance of its duties as the bargaining agent for the employees covered by this agreement.

7. Employees will not be required to cross sanctioned picket lines, unless the Employer obtains passes from the picketing organization. Employees who choose on an individual basis to respect picket lines under other circumstances need not be paid by the Employer for work not performed because of such choice.

ARTICLE III - SECURITY

1. Whenever seniority is referred to in this Agreement, it shall include all continuous service with the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO; but it shall not include service with affiliated unions or local central bodies.

2. The Employer shall have the unlimited right to discharge a new employee who has not concluded a probationary period of six months, beginning from the date of hire. Except under the circumstances referred to in paragraph 5 below, the following provisions shall apply to probationary employees:

(a) The Union will be notified if any problems appear to be developing.

(b) The employee shall be given two weeks¹ notice of discharge or pay in lieu thereof.

3. Except in cases involving serious misconduct, no employee who has completed the six months probationary period shall be discharged except for just and sufficient cause. Before a non-probationary employee is discharged for incompetence or failure to perform work as required, he/she shall receive two written warnings and shall be given an opportunity to improve his/her work. All warnings given the employee shall be made in the presence of the Union steward or representative. Any warning notices which are in writing shall be signed by the Union steward or representative in the presence of the employee, and a copy of the warning notice shall be given to the Union by the Employer. Notices and warnings shall become null and void after six months from date of issue. Warning notices will be removed after one year.

4. Employees with more than six months of service shall be given four weeks' notice, or four weeks' pay in lieu of notice, of any discharge.

5. In the event a discharge is for unlawful conduct or such serious misconduct that immediate action is necessary, none of the above notice provisions or pay in lieu of notice in Sections 2, 3 and 4 above shall apply.

ARTICLE IV - FILLING OF VACANCIES

1. The Employer will attempt to fill vacant positions covered by this Agreement by promotion and, accordingly, before filling any vacancies the Employer shall give advance written notice and first consideration to all employees within the bargaining unit in the filling of such vacancy. It is understood that this provision shall not guarantee a promotion or transfer for a non-qualified individual.

2. It is not the intent of the employer to use temporary, project employees or consultants to fill permanent positions.

However, in extenuating circumstances and subject first to bargaining with the Guild, the Employer may hire a temporary employee for a period not to exceed 90 calendar days, after which time the temporary employee shall be considered a permanent employee. If prior to the end of the 90-day period, the Employer decides to terminate the temporary employee's employment, no consecutive temporary employee shall be hired into this position.

ARTICLE V - LAYOFF

1. The Employer shall notify and consult the Union at least four weeks in advance of any layoff. Layoffs shall be by inverse order of seniority within job classification. Job classifications are defined as the job titles listed in Appendix

A. Any employee notified of layoff who has greater seniority than employees in other classifications may, at the option of the employee being laid off, claim a position in another classification if, in the opinion of the Employer, he/she has the job-related qualifications to perform the job. Disputes on this point are subject to the grievance/arbitration procedure. The result of this layoff procedure should be that the most senior employees who have the job-related qualifications to perform the remaining jobs are retained.

2. Any employee dismissed in a layoff shall be given eight weeks' advance notice and severance pay at the rate of two weeks' pay per year of employment.

3. Employees on layoff will be covered for full health and welfare benefits for a period of three months from the date of layoff. If employment is not gained in the first three months, this period of coverage will be extended for an additional three months.

4. Each employee laid off to reduce the force shall be placed upon a rehire list and shall remain on the list for two years. Said laid-off employee shall be notified by the Employer of openings covered by this Agreement and shall be able to apply for vacant positions in accordance with Article IV. Time spent on a rehire list by a laid-off employee shall not constitute a break in continuity of service and seniority, nor shall time on such list be counted as service time. No pension credits shall be earned during layoff periods.

5. The Employer agrees to discuss with the Guild, at least forty-five (45) days in advance, any proposal to abolish, create or reclassify jobs that fall within the bargaining unit. The Employer agrees to discuss with the Guild the status of any position left unfilled for more than three (3) months, including the disposition of work normally carried out by the person in that position.

ARTICLE VI - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. The Union shall designate a committee of its own choosing of up to three (3) members from the bargaining unit plus the Union representative, to take up with the Employer any matter concerning relations between the employees and Employer, including issues arising from the application or interpretation of this Agreement.

2. The Employer agrees to meet with the committee within five days after a request for a meeting to discuss any grievance, except that the five-day period may be extended by mutual Agreement. The Employer shall respond in writing within 30 days of the initial meeting. Failure to do so shall affirm on behalf of the Union without prejudice to the Employer. Efforts to adjust grievances shall be made whenever possible during the normal workday and workweek.

3. Any matter involving the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement (except renewal of this Agreement), including a question of whether a matter is arbitral, not satisfactorily settled within 30 days of its first consideration may be submitted for final and binding arbitration by either party within 30 days.

4. An arbitrator shall be selected through the striking process from lists furnished by either the American Arbitration Association, Federal Mediation Service or the State Conciliation Service, as determined by mutual Agreement of the parties.

5. Costs of arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties, except that no party shall be obligated to pay any part of the cost of a stenographic transcript without express consent. Refusal to share the cost of the transcript shall be deemed a waiver of the party's right to access to the transcript, however.

6. Arbitrations shall be conducted in accordance with the voluntary labor arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, except as may be mutually agreed.

ARTICLE VII - WORK WEEK

1. The pay week shall consist of five working days within seven consecutive days (Monday through Sunday). Whenever a staff member is on specific assignment of more than five days within a pay week, the employee shall be entitled to a day off in compensatory time for each day worked in excess of the normal work week. Compensatory time shall be at the rate of one day off for a full day worked, and one-half day off for less than a full day worked. A full day shall be defined as four or more hours worked.

2. Employees shall submit records of all compensatory time worked and of any compensatory time taken. The Employer shall maintain such records.

3. Compensatory time off shall be arranged by mutual consent. All comp time earned prior to November 15 of each calendar year shall be used before the end of the calendar year. There will be no carry over to the following year except for comp time earned from November 16 through December 31.

ARTICLE VIII - CLASSIFICATION AND SALARY SCHEDULE

1. The salaries effective for the classifications covered by this Agreement are set forth in Appendix A attached hereto and by this reference made a part of this Agreement.

2. For each week in which an employee performs any work at a higher classification as a replacement for another employee, the employee shall receive a full week's pay at the higher rate. The employee shall notify their supervisor when they believe that they have been performing "out of class" work not more than two weeks after the work has begun.

3. The Employer shall notify the Union prior to establishing any new positions performing duties that are not covered by the classifications listed in Appendix A or in a collective bargaining Agreement between the Employer and any other labor organization. The Employer shall bargain with the Union concerning the salary and classification of any new position.

4. Should a temporary employee be hired for or transfer to a permanent position, seniority shall be credited from the date of initial hire, including seniority for all temporary employment.

ARTICLE IX - VACATION

1. Vacations with pay shall be accrued on the following schedule:

after one (1) year, three (3) weeks; after three (3) years, four (4) weeks; after six (6) years, five (5) weeks; after ten (10) years, six (6) weeks.

An employee shall be entitled to use one (1) week of his/her initial year's vacation after completion of six (6) months of service.

2. Vacation shall be accrued weekly and noted on the employee's weekly pay stub. The rate of accrual shall change according to the provisions of IX.1 on the employee's anniversary date. On the anniversary date (or before) the employee will have the option of cashing out vacation or maintaining a vacation balance of not more than the following:

One year – 3 weeks; two or three years – 5 weeks; four to six years – 8 weeks; seven to ten years – 12 weeks; eleven or more years – sixteen weeks.

3. All accrued pro rata vacation time shall be available to employees taking maternity or paternity leave or other leaves of absence up to the time of the granting of the leave of absence. Use of accrued vacation time for family leave shall not be mandatory.

4. The vacation schedule shall be agreed upon by mutual consent, but employees shall have preference in accordance with seniority.

5. Upon termination of employment, employees shall be paid for accrued or unused vacation time.

6. Holidays that occur during a vacation period are not vacation days.

7. Any dispute regarding vacation accounting shall be resolved within 90 days of the time the employee knew or should have known of the discrepancy.

ARTICLE X - HOLIDAYS

The Employer shall allow time off with pay for the following legal holidays: New Year's Day, Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday, President's Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Veterans' Day, Admission Day, Thanksgiving Day, Day after Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve Day and Christmas Day, Cesar Chavez Day, and the employee's birthday taken as a floating holiday.

ARTICLE XI - GROUP INSURANCE

1. Retirement:

a) The Employer shall continue the existing pension plan with no reduction in benefits. Effective for retirements on and after 1/1/98 the pension formula shall be increased to 3% on the five highest years of pay.

On or after November 1, 2007, and with 30 days written notice to the other side, either party to this Agreement may request bargaining pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) In each year of the Agreement pensioners, as of June in each year, shall receive one extra pension check.

(c) The Employer shall maintain the existing 401(k) Plan, and will match 100% of employee contributions up to an annual maximum of $1,475. The preexisting deferred compensation plan established prior to the establishment of the 401(k) Plan shall be maintained solely for the purpose of deferrals made prior to the establishment of the 401(k) Plan.

(d) The Employer shall provide a copy of the Summary Plan Description for the pension plan, and brochures and enrollment materials for the 401(k) Plan, to each newly hired employee, and to any employee at any time upon request.

2. Health & Welfare: The Employer shall pay the total trust fund contributions required by the San Francisco Media Workers Guild Health and Welfare Trust.

3. The Employer shall pay monthly dependent care contributions required by the Trust Fund for any employee whose dependents are covered by the Plan.

4. The Agreement shall be reopened for the purpose of negotiating on "Medigap" or similar coverage for retired employees if at any time such coverage is provided under the Union's master newspaper contract, or under the trust fund.

5. If the Guild chooses to switch to an alternate health and welfare plan, such as the OPEIU Local 3 health and welfare plan, the Employer shall pay the total trust fund contributions for the plan chosen by the Guild, provided that the total cost for the alternate plan does not exceed the cost of the OPEIU Local 3 health and welfare plan and the plan chosen accepts this participation.

If the Guild's health and welfare plan ceases to include vision and dental benefits comparable to those received by the bargaining unit on March 1, 2004, and the Guild seeks to obtain these benefits from an alternate source, the Employer shall fully fund those benefits from the alternate source chosen by the Guild, provided that the total cost of the health care package does not exceed the total cost of the OPEIU Local 3 health and welfare plan, the San Francisco Media Workers Guild Health and Welfare Trust permits the carve-out and the plan chosen accepts this participation.

6. The Employer will maintain a flexible spending plan or "IRS code section 125 plan" which includes pre-tax reduction of wages to cover such things as medical and dental care reimbursements, dependent care reimbursements and other reimbursements as allowed by law.

ARTICLE XII - SICK LEAVE

1. Sick leave shall be accumulative beginning with the first month of employment and earned on the following basis: One day for each month worked. Sick leave shall be earned before granted. Sick leave shall be noted on the employee's weekly pay stub. Any dispute regarding sick leave accounting shall be resolved within 90 days of the time the employee knew or should have known of the discrepancy.

2. The employee granted sick leave may deduct such granted sick leave from the earned accumulative sick leave and still accumulate earned sick leave. An employee off due to illness or injury in excess of 30 calendar days shall not continue to accrue paid sick leave after the 30 days until employee has returned to work from his/her illness or injury. For payment of sick leave, the Employer may at the Employer's option require a doctor's certificate of proof of illness from the employee before paying such sick leave.

3. Sick leave shall be integrated with Disability Insurance and/or Worker's Compensation, and only the amount of salary paid by the Employer shall be charged against the employee's sick leave credit, and in no case shall an employee receive a lesser amount than his or her applicable wage rate after all credits have been taken.

4. Prearranged medical or dental appointments shall be made during the first two hours of the day's shift or the last two hours of the day's shift and may be deducted from accumulated sick leave up to a maximum of four hours for each appointment, provided at least two days notice is given to the immediate supervisor, but excluding emergency cases.

5. An employee may also use up to two days a year of accrued sick leave to take care of personal business.

6. Unit employees with more than two (2) weeks of sick time may donate sick time to another unit employee if that employee needs sick time due to serious unforeseen illness. The sick employee may receive a maximum of four (4) weeks donated time per year from other unit employees.

ARTICLE XIII - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

1. Upon request the Employer will grant the employees leaves of absence for good and sufficient cause. Such leaves shall not be considered as service time in the actual rights and benefits under this Agreement but shall not cancel previous service in determining total service with the Employer for any reason. Under this section a leave for either public service or service in the labor movement shall be for one year or for the duration of such service, whichever is less. Other leaves shall be limited to a total of one year in any five-year period. Leaves may be extended by mutual Agreement.

2. In the event an employee is elected or appointed to any office or position in the Union or its International, a leave of absence shall be granted for up to three years or the duration of the project, whichever is less. Such leave will not cause undue hardship on the operation of the Federation.

3. Employees inducted into the Armed Services of the United States, or recalled to active duty with the Armed Services, shall accumulate seniority and retain all other rights under this Agreement while in such service, and on return from such service may claim their original job, or if that job be no longer in effect, a comparable job with a salary no less than what they would have received had their service with the Employer been continuous, provided that they apply for reinstatement within 90 days after release from the Armed Services.

4. Employees shall be provided leave with supplemental pay during periods of required jury service and, for a period not to exceed two weeks, during required military reserve training or during emergency military reserve duty. Supplemental pay from the Employer shall be in an amount which when combined with pay received by the employee for such jury duty, or such military reserve training, or such emergency duty, shall equal the total salary that would have been received by the employee from the Employer for the same period of time.

5. Each employee shall receive sufficient time off without reduction in pay to vote on election days.

6. Employees shall be allowed compassionate leave with pay in the event of the death of family members as follows:

(a) Five (5) days for a spouse or domestic partner, son, daughter, mother, or father.

(b) Three (3) days for a mother-in-law, father-in-law, grandparent, including spouse's grandparent, grandchild, step-parent, foster parent, sister, brother, or any other blood relative living under the same roof as the employee.

(c) One (1) day for sister-in-law or brother-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, or nephew.

7. Authorized leave under Section 4 of this Article shall not constitute a break in service and shall be considered as service time for all rights under this Agreement.

8. Any employee offered employment to replace an employee on a leave of absence shall be notified of the possibility of being bumped by the returning employee.

9. The employer may grant employees leaves for work-related scholastic or research pursuits, (such as may be mutually agreed upon) for such time as is necessary for the employee to meet the terms of the pursuit. The number of employees to be on such leave at any one time shall be subject to mutual Agreement between the Employer and the Guild.

ARTICLE XIV - FAMILY LEAVE

1. Upon birth or adoption of a child, the Employer shall coordinate benefits with SDI payments to provide the employee with six weeks fully paid leave. If the employee applies but does not qualify for six weeks of SDI payments, the Employer shall grant three weeks fully paid parental leave.

The Employer shall abide by all state and federal laws relating to paid and unpaid family leave, regardless of whether the Employer is exempted from these laws because of size. However, the Employer will be exempted from the requirement to extend health and welfare benefits during unpaid family leave. State and federal laws relating to paid and unpaid family leave include but are not limited to the California Family Rights Act, State Disability Insurance, the federal Family Medical Leave Act, and Temporary Family Disability Insurance (California's Paid Family Leave law).

In addition to contributions required by the San Francisco Media Workers Guild Health and Welfare Trust Fund, the Employer will make contributions to ensure that the employee will maintain the same eligibility for benefits as if the employee had been working their regular schedule during the period of paid family leave.

The Employer shall provide job protection to all employees on paid or unpaid family leave.

2. An employee with one or more years of service may, upon the birth or adoption of a child, take child-rearing leave not to exceed twelve (12) months, without pay, but without loss of seniority. An employee choosing to take such leave must so notify the Employer in writing before the end of four weeks following the birth or adoption of the employee's baby. Employees who comply with this provision shall be guaranteed the return to the job held at the time of taking leave, plus any increases given to their classification during the time of the leave of absence.

3. The Employer shall grant all employees the right to utilize sick leave for care of family members, or for birth or adoption of a child, as provided to employees who are covered by the provisions of the state Family Rights Act and corresponding federal laws.

4. Physical inability to work due to pregnancy will, except as noted below, be considered to be the same as inability to work due to sickness. An employee will automatically be awarded the period of her hospital confinement plus six (6) weeks of sick leave immediately following thereafter on account of pregnancy, and it will be presumed that it is the normal length of physical disability.

ARTICLE XV – TRANSFERS

1.If an employee is transferred the Employer will pay a flat moving allowance of $2,500.00 in addition to the cost of moving household goods from one location to another.

4. Troubled Employee - The Employer and the Union jointly recognize alcoholism, drug abuse, and emotional problems as illnesses which are treatable. It is also recognized that it is in the best interests of the employees, Employer and the Union that these illnesses be treated and controlled under the collective bargaining contractual relationship. The joint objective is to help, not harm, and is for the rehabilitation and not elimination of the employee. Any employee who seeks treatment for any of the above illnesses shall, during the period of treatment, be entitled to all of the rights and benefits provided to other employees under this Agreement, including sick leave.

5. Past Practices - All existing established past practices concerning any terms and conditions of employment, not altered or removed by this Agreement shall remain in effect.
