ELECTION NOTICE

Nominations are now open for all Local and Unit officer and delegate positions.

Local Officers: President, First Vice President, three Vice Presidents, Treasurer, Secretary and the Executive Officer. One Vice President is elected from the California Federation of Interpreters, and serves as President of the CFI; one Vice President is elected from a Hawaii Unit; and one Vice President is elected from a California Unit other than a CFI Unit.

Unit Officers: Unit Chair, Vice Chair and Secretary.

Delegates: Guild Sector Conference, Print Sector Conference, CWA Convention; Western District Council.

If more than one person is nominated for any position, or more delegate candidates are nominated than positions allotted, an Election will be held. Terms are for two years starting January 1, 2014.

Any member in good standing may be nominated. You may nominate yourself or you may nominate another member. Signed acceptances are required. Nominations may be taken at any Unit Council meeting and from the floor at the November 23, 2013, meeting of the Executive Committee/Representative Assembly/General Membership. The EC/RA/Membership is expected to close nominations on November 23, 2013. Nominations by petition may be accepted for up to four business days after the November meeting. For full details on election procedures, see Local bylaws.
